Appendix XI – GSS Code of Conduct

A. Introduction

As councillors, we recognize that responsible conduct is essential to provide good governance for the University of British Columbia Graduate Student Society (UBC GSS).

We further recognize that responsible conduct is based on the foundational principles of integrity, accountability, respect, leadership, and collaboration.

In order to fulfil our obligations and discharge our duties, we are required to conduct ourselves to the highest ethical standards by being active participants of the UBC GSS in ensuring that these foundational principles, and the standards of conduct set out below, are followed in all of our dealings with every person, including those with members of the UBC GSS, staff, and the public.

B. How to Apply and Interpret this Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct applies to the councillors of the UBC GSS as well as to committee members when working on GSS-related tasks. It is each councillor's and committee member's individual responsibility to uphold both the letter and the spirit of this Code of Conduct in their dealings with members of the UBC GSS, staff, and the public.

Councillors and committee members must conduct themselves in accordance with the law. This Code of Conduct is intended to be developed, interpreted and applied by councillors and committee members in a manner that is consistent with all applicable Federal and Provincial Laws, the common law, as well as the bylaws and policies of the local government, and the UBC GSS.

C. Foundational Principles of Responsible Conduct

1. Integrity – means being honest and demonstrating strong ethical principles. Conduct under this principle upholds the society's interests, is lawful, truthful, and honourable.
2. Respect – means having due regard for others' perspectives, wishes, and rights. Conduct under this principle is demonstrated when a councillor or committee member fosters an environment of trust by demonstrating due regard for the perspectives, wishes, and rights of others.
3. Accountability – means an obligation and willingness to accept responsibility or to account for one's actions. Conduct under this principle is demonstrated when councillors or committee members, individually and collectively, accept responsibility for their actions and decisions.
4. Leadership and Collaboration – means an ability to lead, listen to, and positively influence others; it also means coming together to create or meet a common goal through collective efforts. Conduct under this principle is demonstrated when a councillor or committee member encourages individuals to work together in pursuit of collective objectives by leading, listening to, and positively influencing others.

D. Mission Statement

“The Graduate Student Society of UBC-Vancouver advocates for, promotes, and protects the academic, social, intellectual, cultural, and recreational interests of its members” (GSS Strat Plan 2017-2021)

Based on the mission statement of the GSS, councillors and committee members are expected in the conduct of their duties to promote the society in the attainment of the vision of the society.

E. Standards of Conduct

In upholding the standards and visions of the GSS, councillors and committee members are expected to display the foundational principles outlined in this Code of Conduct. The following expand on the conduct expected of each councillor and committee member outlined in Section C.

Integrity: Integrity is demonstrated by the following conduct:

- Councillors and committee members will be truthful, honest, and open in all dealings, including those with other members of the UBC GSS, staff, and the public.
- Councillors and committee members will ensure that their actions are consistent with the shared principles and values of the UBC GSS collectively agreed to by the council.
- Councillors and committee members will follow through on their commitments, correct errors in a timely and transparent manner, and engage in positive communication with the graduate student community.
- Councillors and committee members will direct their minds to the merits of the decisions before them, ensuring that they act based on relevant information and principles and in consideration of the consequences of those decisions.
- Councillors and committee members will behave in a manner that promotes public confidence in all of their dealings.
- Councillors and committee members will ensure that their actions are consistent with the rules and regulations set out by the UBC GSS and consistent with general principles of the Rule of Law.

- Councillors and committee members will treat every person with dignity, understanding, and acceptance.
- Councillors and committee members will show consideration for every person's values, and contributions to discussions.
- Councillors and committee members will demonstrate awareness of their own conduct, and consider how their words or actions may be perceived as offensive or demeaning.

Councillors will acknowledge that as leaders of their community, they are expected to uphold a high standard of conduct at all times including but not limited to public interactions and online interactions.
- Councillors and committee members will recognize that debate is an essential part of the democratic process and encourage constructive discourse while empowering other members and staff to provide the perspectives on relevant issues.

Appendix XXI

1. Objective

- 1.1 This addresses conflicts between Councillor(s) and/or committee member(s) (referred to hereafter as the complainant(s)) to Councillor(s) and/or committee member(s) and/or a committee/caucus (referred to hereafter as the complainee(s)).
- 1.2 Complaints shall be addressed to the respective committee/caucus Chair if applicable.
- 1.3 Conflict Resolution at the GSS shall adhere to the procedures listed in section two of this appendix.
- 1.4 Conflicts directed towards an Executive Officer shall be directed to the Executive Oversight Committee as per Policy 8.6.2.(j).

2. Procedure

- 2.1 A complaint shall be lettered by the complainant and sent to the Governance and Accountability Committee Chair. The letter must cover the following topics:
  - (a) The complainee and their email (if known)
  - (b) What the conflict entails, including dates and whether it is a reoccurring issue
  - (c) References to the Code of Conduct, Policy Manual, and/or Bylaws (when possible)
  - (d) Provision of supporting documents as attachments (such as emails, screenshots, or other forms of evidence)
  - (e) Whether the complainant would like to undergo mediation or if submitted exclusively to the Governance and Accountability Committee as a notification of misconduct to be recorded and filed
- 2.2 The Governance and Accountability Committee Chair shall select a mediator to oversee the complaint. The mediator shall:
  - (a) be a Chair of a Committee or Caucus, or a Deputy Chair if no Chair is suitable,
    - i. The following shall be the ordering for complaint mediators if there is a conflict in the previous committee as a candidate for overseeing the complaint:
      - a. Governance and Accountability Committee
      - b. Executive Oversight Committee
      - c. Human Resources Committee
      - d. Code and Policy Committee
      - e. Engagement and Elections Committee
      - f. Academic and External Affairs Committee
      - g. In the cases where a Chair or Committee is the subject of the complaint, Executives may be asked to take on this role.

- (b) not have a conflict of interest, such as being named within the complaint, or having a personal relationship outside of GSS business with a complaine, such as being a friend or roommate,
- (c) be familiar with mediation concepts, including having read relevant GSS policies, and/or having been exposed to GSS mediation training, and
  - i. Important mediation concepts include neutrality, ability to hear both sides, and motivation to resolve the dispute in a way that satisfies both sides.
- (d) be obligated to take on this mediation role as part of their duties as a Chair/Deputy Chair/Executive.
  - i. Extenuating circumstances or a conflict-of-interest may relieve the mediator of this duty.

- 2.3 Mediator selection will be done within three business days of receiving complaint. The Governance and Accountability Committee will email all parties to introduce the mediator. Parties will have three business days to notify the Governance and Accountability Committee of any issues, including conflict-of-interest, that may have been missed.
- 2.4 Mediator will request a meeting from the complainant to be scheduled within five (5) business days of appointment of Mediator.
- 2.5 Mediator will request a meeting with the complaine to be scheduled within five (5) business days of the completion of the previous meeting.
- 2.6 After both meetings, the Mediator will write a “memorandum of understanding” within five (5) business days. This MOU will contain:
- (a) the subject of the complaint as understood by the Mediator, and
  - (b) proposed outcome of the situation.
- 2.7 If agreed and signed by all members involved within three (3) business days, the resolution stands, and the complaint is considered completed. Completed files will be sent to the Governance and Accountability Committee Chair for storage. These files are confidential and shall stay within a digital folder only accessible to the Governance and Accountability Committee.
- 2.8 If there is a disagreement, the disagreeing member(s) may submit amendments. These amendments will be considered by the mediator. If they stand, they may be submitted and the count of the three (3) business days will restart. Changes to the document may not be made after ten (10) business days.
- 2.9 If no solution can be found, in that either the complainant or complaine, or both, reject the MOU, a grievance hearing will be held between the members and the Mediator, who will chair this meeting. There shall be two other Committee Chairs or Deputy Chairs selected by the Mediator who are not in conflict and agree to a written statement that they are not (these members, as well as the original Mediator, shall be known as the Panel). The Panel shall take the following actions:
- (a) Hold a fair hearing with the complainant and complaine present.
  - (b) Ask the complainant and/or complaine questions related to the complaint and ask for further evidence or relevant information that may inform their decision, if required.
  - (c) Deliberate in camera and write a resolution that also contains its reasoning.
  - (d) The Panel shall vote on the resolution, with a simple majority needed for it to pass.

- (e) Formulate a Resolution that shall be sent out to the President & all involved parties within three (3) business days of its certification by the aforementioned simple majority vote of the Panel.
  - i. The Resolution from the Panel is considered final. If solution needs to be voted on by Council, this must take place at the next available council.
  - ii. Further deliberations will only be considered for conflict-of-interest reasons.

3. Data Storage

- 3.1 All documents and data related to the Conflict Resolution process shall be kept in a private Microsoft Teams channel titled “Conflict Resolution” within the Governance and Accountability Team, visible only to the Governance and Accountability Committee Chair.
- 3.2 Conflict Resolution process documents may be shared by the Governance and Accountability Committee with others directly involved in the Conflict Resolution process as required.
- 3.3 Documents should be kept for a maximum of one (1) year after resolution, after which they should be deleted from the Governance and Accountability Committee Conflict Resolution channel file system.
